

POLICY STATEMENT FOR QUALITY

The Quality Management System implemented by International Testing Services Ltd is designed based on and designed to be compliant with EN ISO 9001 & DNVGL-CP-0484.

All the company's NDT and inspection activities are managed and conducted independently and in an impartial Manner. All employees when notified of any conflict of interest that may compromise any inspection results shall report these immediately.

It is the policy of International Testing Services Ltd that all employees are inducted to ensure knowledge and understanding of the QMS and that they are responsible for the quality of their work. They therefore must comply fully with the requirements of the Quality Manual and Operating Procedures to ensure that:

- The service that International Testing Services supply to Customers, Clients and any interested parties complies fully with Customer specifications, requirements and meets their expectations.
- The service supplied to Customers by International Testing Services Ltd meets all contractual requirements or agreements.
- All inspections performed International Testing Services Ltd are performed in a safe and efficient manner. They shall be carried out in a manner that complies fully with all statutory Health, Safety and Environmental regulations/expectations. This is expanded in the policy statement for HSE.

International Testing Services Ltd are fully committed to the principals of EN ISO 9001, the effective implementation of the Quality Management System and to continually improve the Quality Management System. This shall be incorporated by the initial and annual inductions.

International Testing Services quality objectives shall be reviewed on a regular basis and a reports published to monitor compliance.

Signed		Signed
	George Shields, Quality Director		Michael Oates, Operations Director
Date:	9 TH September 2023	Date:	9 th September 2023